New Business

Maple Court - Councilmen Don Ensign and Dave Peeler reported that water is backing up at the end of the cul-de-sac. Public Works Director Jim Shelhart stated he would check into the matter.

Birch Street - It was noted that there are drainage issues in this area that need to be addressed.

Old Business

Oak Court - Jim Shelhart reported that on April 13th the Street Department will install a pipe under the road and that he is getting pricing and other information for the purchase of catch basins which will be installed on each side of road. He estimated the cost of the project to be $30,000.00. He further stated that the lines may have to be jetted.

Mr. Shelhart reported that his department has jetted three miles of lines and are cleaning out basins.

There being no further business before the Board, on motion of Steve Sibbrell, seconded by Frank Stalbaum and duly carried 2-0, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
