To celebrate 10 years of existence, the Hebron Rebuilding Together team took on more houses to repair than ever before on Saturday, April 30th.

Brent Harting, President of RT-Hebron, said the goal this year was to make the maximum impact that they could. With so many people in need, they wanted to reach out to the community and do as many projects as the budget could bear.

It all started with the kickoff meeting at the Community Center at 7 a.m. Then, like an army of ants, over 70 volunteers descended upon the neighborhoods of Hebron to help 15 residents of Hebron fix up their homes.

There was a huge scope of work this year: deck building, bathroom repair/remodeling, new windows and doors, painting, landscaping, roofing, and general construction.

Lunch was served by Jamie Uzelac's crew for everyone and it was thoroughly enjoyed by the crew. By late afternoon, the crews have gotten so good at this that the work was almost entirely wrapped up.

So many people make an event like this a success, but they could always use more. Whatever skill you have, even if you don't think you have one, they will use or help you find it.

The board members should be thanked again for their hard work as this event takes an unbelievable amount of coordination to pull off with such apparent ease. The board members give up many hours to plan, coordinate, and implement a project as large as this; we thank them.

Kudos again to the generous donators who make this event possible, in these tough times.

Town Updates

Jim Shelhart, our Public Works Director, wanted to let us know that limb and leaf pickup will be on the first Monday this month, that's May 2nd. Jim especially wanted me to tell you that they do NOT want you to tie up the limbs together, the nylon rope messes up our chipper. Place all limbs that are no more than 2" round and 6' long by the curb for pickup. Please ensure that there aren't any rocks, construction debris, or such in your leaf piles please. This can be dangerous for our workers. Thank you for the help.

This is who we are; proud and strong people who care about and for each other.

The Hebron Chamber Golf Outing is scheduled for Tuesday, August 30, 2011 at Sandy Pines Golf Course in DeMotte. Chad Franzman, Russ' Print Shop, is the chairperson of this event. If you are interested in help plan this fun event, please contact him.

The 4th of July Celebration committee is working hard on planning the parade and fireworks. The fireworks will be on July 3rd at dusk at Hebron Schools. The parade will take place at 10:00 am. The Flag Raising and Turtle Derby will be held at the Community Center. The committee is still presently working on choosing the parade theme and Grand Marshall. Also, pre-registration for the parade is encouraged as the committee will be assigning your parade location this year. The sooner you register—the better your position in the parade!

Hebron Easter Egg Hunt 2011

Billed as the fastest 45 seconds in egg history, the Hebron Park Board's Annual Easter Egg Hunt was held on Saturday, April 16th, at Cohen Park on the east side of Hebron. It was a blustery, wet, and cloudy April morning (in what became the cloudiest April in Chicagoland's history since recordkeeping began in the 1800's), but the kids did not care one whit. At 9:08, the Police tape was stretched to its limits as the kids crept closer and closer into the fields. The eggs were divided into 4 age groups: 0-2, 3-4, 5-7, and 8 to 12 and there was scarcely a blade of grass to be found when it began.

If you haven't witnessed it, it truly is worth your time. When the horn sounds, you have never seen thousands and thousands of eggs disappear this quickly. In less than 3 minutes, they're all gone.

Written on some of the eggs is a number that corresponds to the child's number in line to chose a prize. The prize tables were covered with gifts for the kids. There were also bikes to give away for the older kids and riding toys for the little ones.

Hebron Easter Egg Hunt (continued from page 2)

It might have been cold and rainy, but seeing the kids' faces when they spotted the Easter Bunny warmed the chilliest of hearts. The Hebron Fire Department gave the Easter Bunny a ride to the event and helped him find his way to the Paul G. Stalbaum Memorial Gazebo for his photo shoot. After the Egg Hunt, the parents and kids lined up for photos with the Easter Bunny and cuteness was to be had.

Thanks goes to the volunteers and donators that make this event a success, especially Brent Harting, Mike Spicer, Joe Toth and family, Steve Sibbrell and family, Jim Shelhart and the Public Works Department, Paul Grochowski, the Hebron Police and Fire Departments, and all who pitched in that day to help.

Hebron has so much fun in store for this year, that this was a great kickoff event. More details in next month's issue.....

Hebron Library News

Spring means warmer weather, and many people spend more time outside doing gardening and other chores. Even if you can't hold a book, you can still read by listening to audio books while you perform other tasks. The library's audio book collection covers many fiction authors as well as nonfiction subjects, too. If the Hebron Library does not have the title you want, you may be able to request it from another library in the Porter County Library System, and the courier will bring it to Hebron for you. Please contact the library for more information about audio books or placing a request on the item you want.

Rebuilding Together Hebron 2011

The kickoff meeting is more thrilling than this picture would portend.... Really.....

Always time for clowning around; Jeannie Steinhilber and Chris Stalbaum mug for a self-portrait.

Board Member Jo Marie Burton, House Captain Mike Cornell, and Henry Schuringa listen to the instructions for the day.

Seriously, work does actually get done when the clowning around is done. Don't tell these guys that, though.

3 Things You Can Do To Survive a STROKE

Provided by Porter Health System

To help improve the chances of surviving and recovering from a stroke, there are three things you can do, according to Kip Adrian, MD, medical director for Porter's Emergency Department:

1. Know the signs

"Strokes are one of the most common serious diagnoses we see in the ER, yet many people aren't familiar with the signs," said Adrian. (See the ACT FAST chart below to recognize the signs.)

2. Call 911 or get to the Emergency Room now!

"Time can make all the difference," said Adrian. "We treat stroke with the same intensity and level of concern as someone having a heart attack," he said. "Expect immediate attention and expedited testing so we can quickly learn if you're having a stroke and what kind."

3. Record the time the symptoms began

"We have the best options within three hours of onset. But the powerful clot-busting drug tPA can cause dangerous side effects, such as bleeding in the brain, if given too far after the three-hour window," said Adrian. "It's imperative to pinpoint the time of onset," he said. Adrian warns that patients should seek help even if their symptoms seem to go away after minutes. "A short episode may be a transient ischemic attack (TIA), which is often a warning sign of a future stroke. From 4 to 20 percent of patients with TIAs progress to stroke within 90 days, half within the first 48 hours," said Adrian.

Stroke Symptoms include:

SUDDEN numbness or weakness of face, arm or leg – especially on one side of the body.

SUDDEN confusion, trouble speaking or understanding.

SUDDEN trouble seeing in one or both eyes.

SUDDEN trouble walking, dizziness, loss of balance or coordination.

SUDDEN severe headache with no known cause.

If you think someone may be having a stroke, Act F.A.S.T. and do this simple test:

FACE Ask the person to smile. Does one side of the face droop?

ARMS Ask the person to raise both arms. Does one arm drift downward?

SPEECH Ask the person to repeat a simple sentence.

Are the words slurred?

Can he/she repeat the sentence correctly?

TIME If the person shows any of these symptoms, time is important.

your life. better.
